BRITISH FACTORY LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

1. The Library Rooms are open to Subscribers between the hours of 12 and 6 p. m., on Mondays to Fridays, and between 12 and 3½ p. m., on Saturdays, during which hours only, the Librarian will be in attendance, and books be delivered.

2. A Register is kept in the Rooms, open to inspection, in which the Librarian writes the titles of all new Books, and the dates when they are received into the Library. Books will be considered as New for Four Months from these dates, which will be written on the tickets pasted on to the covers.

3. A Register is likewise kept of all books taken from and returned to the Library.

4. Subscribers at Sro. 7 50^{cs} per annum, are not entitled to take Books from the Library.

5. Subscribers at Sro. 15 per annum, are entitled to take Books from the Library, but not more than one or two New Works (according to instructions given by the Manager to the Librarian, on receipt of New Books, and depending on the number received), and two other Works, at a time.

6. Subscriptions will be applied for annually on the 1st March, for the year ensuing, on which date all previous Subscriptions terminate.

7. Subscribers are admitted from 1st September, or later, to 1st March next, at Sro. 10.

8. The time allowed for reading is for

One Folio Work 6 weeks

One Quarto Work 4 „

One Octavo, or } Work of 3 vols . 2 „

One Duodecimo }

Periodicals, Reviews, &c. 1 „ pr. No.

but where New Books are in great request, the time for reading will be determined by the Manager of the Library.

9. Subscribers may receive Books from the Library either personally, or by a note to the Librarian, and can in like manner renew the term allowed for reading any work in their possession, provided previous application has not been made for it.

10. Each Subscriber will be furnished with a Check-book, in which the Librarian will enter all Works taken out, and the dates when taken and returned. Each Subscriber is answerable for all works entered in his Check-book as delivered to him, and not marked off by the Librarian, as returned to the Library.

11. Should any Subscriber lose the Check-book in use, he must procure another from the Librarian before he is entitled to receive any more Books, paying Sro. 1 for it. He will also in that case be responsible for such Books as are shown to be in his possession by the Register at the time.

12. Applications for Books in circulation will be regularly entered in a Register kept for that purpose, and the Librarian will send such Books, when returned to the Library, to the applicants in succession.

13. No Book can be transferred from one Subscriber to another, without previous application to the Librarian.

14. No Subscriber is allowed to lend a Library Book to a Non-Subscriber. For each infringement of this rule, a fine of Sro. 15 will be exacted.

15. Subscribers must at once return any Books, kept beyond the prescribed term, on application being made by the Librarian. If not returned within a week after such application, the Books will be considered as lost, and their value exacted.

16. Subscribers will be required to pay for every work, of which one or more volumes are damaged whilst in their possession, or lost. For every number of a Periodical lost, double the cost will be exacted, or the value of the volume, if a fresh number cannot be obtained without buying the volume.

17. Subscribers are entitled to introduce as Visitors, British Subjects, not resident in St. Petersburg, by inscribing their names in a book kept in the Rooms for that purpose. Visitors are allowed the same privileges as the Subscriber who introduces, and who is responsible for them. Any person resident for 12 months will not be considered a visitor.

18. Every question that may arise as to the interpretation of these Regulations, shall be decided by the Manager of the Library.
